Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

The Minority Resource and Research Center was first established in 1971 as a way to promote diversity and meet the informational needs for the diverse community at Kansas State University. The Center has sponsored and co-sponsored a number of programs over the years, such as Movies on the Grass, forums, and lectures that focus on diversity and culture.

In 1978 the "We are the Dream!" mural was started by Kansas State University minority students and completed in 1980. In 2001, the Dow Chemical Company created an endowment to be used by the library to support the multicultural mission of the Center. As a result, the resource center was renamed to the Dow Multicultural Resource Center. In 2012, it was renamed the Dow Center for Multicultural and Community Studies.

Custodial history

Received the accession number U2011.30 on 14 July 2011.

Scope and content

This collection is comprised of material from the Dow Chemical Multicultural Resource Center at Kansas State University Libraries. Material within this collection covers multicultural issues, personalities, and events at Kansas State University as well as the surrounding area. The bulk of the material in the collection is from the 1960s to the 1990s. There are photographs taken by Lawrence Wright, Jr., as well as posters from events sponsored by the Dow Chemical Multicultural Resource Center.
